Mr. Kennedy, who had just checked in at the hotel (room 1542), said he thought his room was "bugged" and he wanted the FBI to check it out. ACTION TAKEN:

The Chicago Office was instructed to comply with Mr. Kennedy's request. (b)(7)(C)

SAC James Gale advised at 11:55 p. m. that Mr. Kennedy's room had been thoroughly checked out by sound trained SA's [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] but no hidden microphones or other technical equipment was located.

Isolationist Kennedy Opposed
As Chief of Shipping Program

Special to The Post

Washington, Apr. 21—New Dealers here are putting up a vigorous fight against the boom for appointment of Joseph P. Kennedy, former chairman of the Maritime Commission, as director of the nation's merchant ship building program.

Their opposition to Kennedy is based upon two factors. First, Kennedy when Ambassador to Great Britain and after he was recalled was openly defeatist and isolationist, predicting invasion and defeat of England. Second, even earlier he was considered by the New Dealers too conservative and too much a representative of big business.

Criticism of Land

Backers of Kennedy for director of the crucial drive to speed up shipbuilding point to his record as Maritime Commission chairman in 1937, when he pronounced the U. S. merchant marine "a very sick industry" and directed the beginning of the effort to rebuild it.

The Kennedy boom grows out of recent criticism of the policies of Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the War Shipping Administration, but Land's supporters assert that this criticism has emanated from the same shipbuilding interests that are supporting Kennedy.

All-Outers Fear Pressure Will Put Kennedy in Job

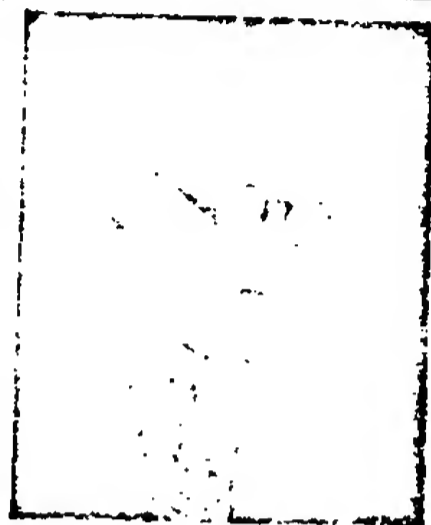

WASHINGTON, Apr. 21. The all-outers of the American war effort are pressing for a decision on the part of the government to put Joseph P. Kennedy in the job of coordinating the war effort.

"I cannot say when we could get the ships to carry the necessary troops and equipment for our participation in the war," Kennedy said today.

The move to put Kennedy in the job was a few days ago called for by the House to get a decision on the part of the government to put Kennedy in the job of coordinating the war effort.

"We want to see Kennedy in the job," Kennedy said today.

Interest in the situation was increased by the announcement of Lord Leese, Governor of Hopkins yesterday that plans had been drawn to put Kennedy in the job of coordinating the war effort.

The Questions

These questions are being asked:

1. Would Kennedy, who is personally opposed to the war, be able to work with the all-outers?

Re: JOSEPH P. KENNEDY
SPECIAL SERVICE CONTACT

Dear Sir:

Special Agent [REDACTED] of this office is a personal friend of JOSEPH P. KENNEDY, former Ambassador to London, and the latter has indicated that he would be glad to assist the Bureau in any way possible should his services be needed. (b)(7)(C)

Mr. KENNEDY speaks very highly of the Bureau and the Director, and has indicated that if he were ever in a position to make any official recommendations there would be one Federal investigative unit and that would be headed by J. Edgar Hoover. He considers the Naval and Army Intelligence Services "amateurs" in comparison to the Bureau and regrets that they have often meddled in investigations coming within the jurisdiction of the Bureau.

However, no attempt will be made to develop Mr. Kennedy as a Special Service contact unless the Bureau so instructs.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of September 7, 1943, in which you advise that Joseph P. Kennedy, former Ambassador to London, has indicated he would be glad to assist the Bureau in any way possible, and that you would make no further effort to develop him as a Special Service Contact unless the Bureau so instructs.

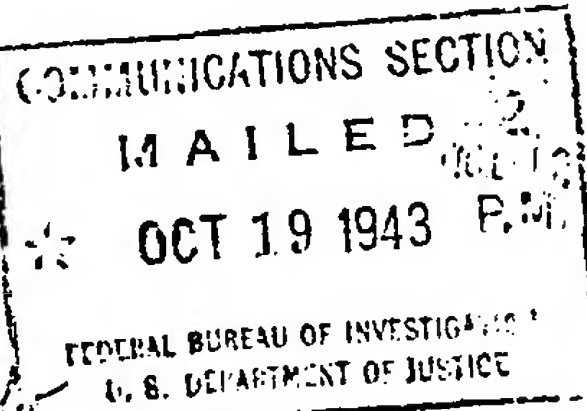

In the event you feel that Mr. Kennedy is in a position to offer active assistance to the Bureau such as is expected of Special Service Contacts, there is no objection to utilizing him in this capacity. If he can be made use of as a Special Service Contact, the Bureau should be advised as to the nature of the information he is able to provide, or the facilities he can offer for the Bureau's use. Every effort should be made to provide him with investigative assignments in keeping with his particular ability and the Bureau should be advised as to the nature of these assignments, together with the results obtained. When this latter information is furnished to the Bureau, if available, the Bureau file number should be set forth; otherwise the title of the case concerning which he renders assistance should be set forth.

You should also, in the event he is to be made a Special Service Contact, provide the Bureau with the desired background information set forth in Section 13-M of the National Defense Manual.

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to Bureau letter of October 18, 1943, Bureau File 67-380854, to the Boston Office relative to the offer by former Ambassador to London Joseph P. Kennedy to assist the Bureau in any possible manner. In connection with the background of Mr. Kennedy, the following information is contained in Who's Who in America:

He was born September 6, 1888, at Boston, Mass. He graduated from Boston Latin School in 1908, receiving an AB degree from Harvard in 1912. He holds an honorary LL.D degree from the National University of Dublin, Ireland, received in 1938; and honorary degrees from the University of Edinburgh, Manchester, Liverpool, Bristol, and Cambridge, received in 1939. He was bank examiner for the State of Massachusetts from 1912 to 1914; President of the Columbia Trust Company, Boston, from 1914 to 1917; Assistant General Manager at the Fall River, Mass., plant of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation from 1917 to 1919; Manager of the Hayden-Stone Company, investment bankers, Boston, from 1919 to 1924; President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Film Booking Offices of America from 1926 to 1929; Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Keith Albee Orpheum Theaters Corporation, 1928-1929; President and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Pathe Exchange, Inc., from 1929 to 1930. Britain from 1937 to 1940 and resigned from that post in November 1940.

Mr. Kennedy is a Democrat, a Catholic, and has an estate on North Ocean Boulevard, Palm Springs, Florida, and a summer home in Hyannisport, Massachusetts. He also spends considerable time in New York City.

Special Agent [REDACTED] of the Boston Field Division, resident Agent at Hyannis, Mass., has had many productive investigative and social contacts with former Ambassador Kennedy at Hyannisport.

In the course of discussing the Bureau's project with Mr. Kennedy, Agent [REDACTED] was informed by the former Ambassador that he, Kennedy, is still actively engaged in the liquor business in New York City and owns several moving picture houses there. He stated that he maintains very close connections, financial and otherwise, with the moving picture industry in California and presently fears that the Communists and their fellow travelers have succeeded in obtaining for themselves many key positions in the moving picture industry. Mr. Kennedy also stated that he has some very good connections in South America in the moving picture business and he added that most of the foreign managers of the moving picture industry are indebted to him in one way or another; also, that he could easily secure assistance from any of these individuals in the event this assistance would benefit the Bureau in any way.

Mr. Kennedy is a devout Catholic and is very well versed on Communism and what it might possibly mean to the United States. He has said that he has many Jewish friends in the moving picture industry who would furnish him, upon request, with any information in their possession pertaining to Communist infiltration in the moving picture industry. He feels also that he is in a position to secure any information the Bureau may desire from his contacts in the industry with reference to any individuals who have Communistic sympathies.

The Bureau is also reminded that, because of his diplomatic background, Mr. Kennedy also has innumerable contacts in the international diplomatic set and he is willing to use his entree into those circles for any advantage the Bureau might desire in this field.

Reference is made to Bureau letter dated September 22, 1944 in connection with the compilation at the Bureau of a list of Special Service Contacts, who have been most frequently utilized, have been very cooperative and who have been of the greatest value to the various Field Offices since the United States entered World War II.

① It is not believed that the name of Special Service Contact JOSEPH P. KENNEDY should be included in this list at the present time due to his recent inclusion in the list of Special Service Contacts in this office.

It is my belief that the name of Special Service Contact [REDACTED] should be included in this list. Reference is made to your letter dated July 3, 1945, which is your quarterly report regarding special service contacts.

It is noted that you have had no occasion during the past three months to utilize the services of either of your special service contacts in assisting in investigative matters but that you have maintained personal contact with them.

You are advised that it is not necessary for you to restrict requests of these individuals to matters relating to cases under investigation by the Bureau. There is no objection to asking these individuals to secure information regarding any matters which you feel would be of interest to your office either currently or for reference purposes in the future. JOSEPH P. KENNEDY
BOSTON FIELD OFFICE

Joseph P. Kennedy has been designated as a Special Service Contact since September 7, 1943. He is the former United States Ambassador to Great Britain, from which post he resigned in November, 1940. Because of his diplomatic background and his innumerable contacts in the international diplomatic set, he has entree to those circles and is willing to use his entree into these circles on behalf of the Bureau.

He is still actively engaged in the liquor business in New York City and owns several moving picture houses there. He maintains close connections financial and otherwise with the moving picture industry in California and has some very good connections in South America in this industry. In the moving picture industry he has many Jewish friends who he believes would furnish him, upon request, with any information in their possession pertaining to Communist infiltration into the industry. He feels that he is in a position to secure any information the Bureau may desire from his contacts in the industry with reference to any individuals who have Communist sympathies.

In a letter dated December 27, 1943, the Boston Office advised that the Resident Agent in Hyannis, Massachusetts, had had many productive investigative and social contacts with Mr. Kennedy.

In a report for the quarter ending October, 1944, the SAC stated that the assistance of Mr. Kennedy had been enlisted in the case entitled [REDACTED] Because of his (572) previous experience in the shipbuilding industry he was in a position to make valuable inquiries regarding the case and did so and furnished the field office with the results.

Although additional reports were received regarding Mr. Kennedy, they contained no information indicating any further activity on behalf of the office on the part of Mr. Kennedy.

In the event a certificate is to be awarded, it should be made out to Joseph P. Kennedy.

While attending the Conference on Citizenship at Boston, [REDACTED], who was chairman of one of the sections of the group whose meetings I attended, was introduced to me by [REDACTED] of [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] attended a considerable number of the meetings of the conference on juvenile delinquency, and numerous times spoke very favorably of the Bureau and the work that the Bureau is doing. He introduced [REDACTED], seemingly because of his interest in the Bureau, and made the effort to point out to [REDACTED] that I was a Special Agent of the Bureau. [REDACTED] instantly and quite enthusiastically expressed his admiration for the Director and the work that the Bureau has been doing. (6) (7) (C)

At this time, Miss Eunice Kennedy, who is presently employed by the Department of Justice as Executive Assistant to the Attorney General in charge of juvenile matters, interrupted to state that recently her father, Joseph Kennedy, had met with the Director and that he was very much impressed by the Director. She went on to considerable length to state that her father had indicated that the efficiency of the Bureau had always impressed him, that he was very much impressed with the administrative organization and the operation of the Bureau. Apparently, Mr. Kennedy was granted an interview by the Director and had spoken quite loudly in praise of him to Miss Kennedy and his son, who is presently a Congressman.

Subsequently, Miss Kennedy advised me that her father had enjoyed very much a tour he had made of the Bureau, and continued with other complimentary remarks regarding the Director and the FBI.

"Who's Who" reflects that Joseph Patrick Kennedy was born in Boston, Massachusetts, on September 6, 1888. He graduated from the Boston Latin School in 1908, got an A.B. from Harvard in 1912, and has received numerous honorary degrees from universities and colleges both in the United States and Abroad.

He was married in 1914 to Rose Fitzgerald and they had nine children.

Kennedy was a Bank Examiner for Massachusetts from 1912 to 1914; President of the Columbia Trust Company from 1914 to 1917; in the shipbuilding business 1917-1919 (Bethlehem Steel) and has been in the investment business or in financial endeavors since 1919.

He was appointed to the Securities and Exchange Commission in 1934. He resigned in 1935. He was Chairman of the U. S. Maritime Commission in 1937 and was Ambassador to Great Britain from 1937 to 1941. He resigned in November, 1940. He has a Papal decoration, is trustee of Notre Dame University, is a Catholic and a democrat. His home is North Ocean Boulevard, Palm Beach, Florida.

There is scant information in the Bureau files on Kennedy. His son, Joseph, Jr., a veteran, is a member of Congress from Massachusetts. Both of Kennedy's sons had good war records but he, himself, although variously mentioned for important war jobs, seems to have been relatively inactive. Since the conclusion of the war, he apparently has devoted himself to business.

In June, 1933, Special Agent [REDACTED] advised that he had received very cordial treatment from Ambassador Kennedy in London, while [REDACTED] was there visiting Scotland Yard. (S)(C)

Kennedy's Ambassadorship to Britain is widely regarded in the United States as demonstrating that Kennedy was an appeaser and believed that Britain would lose the war. His appointment during this period is thought to be important only as it throws light on his present views about Russia as reported by Mr. Arthur Krock.

Dear Mr. Kennedy:

I have been advised of the address that you made at the law enforcement officers' meeting at Hyannis last week and of the many kindly references you made to the FBI and my administration of it. I did want you to know how deeply I appreciated your thoughtful observations.

Your interest in the Bureau and its problems has been a real source of encouragement over the years, and I do hope that our activities will continue to merit your attention.

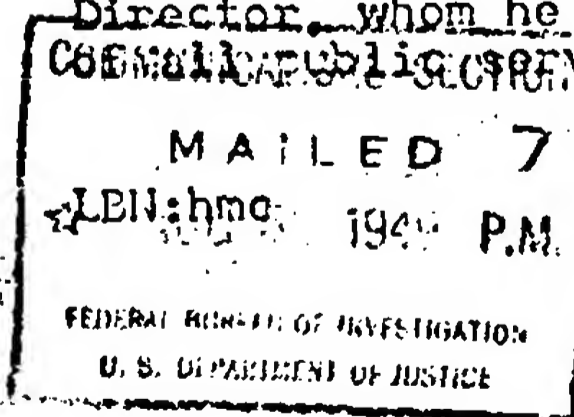

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

NOTE: SAC Soucy advised that Kennedy made a grand speech at the Chiefs of Police meeting in Hyannis. He pointed out it was hard to get men in public life because of unjust criticism; that when the Bureau and the Director were criticized recently he had called the Director on the phone to reassure him of his support; that he was glad he was invited to speak at a law enforcement officers' meeting as it gave him an opportunity to publicly express his approval of the Bureau and his commendation of its Director, whom he regarded as one of the most competent public servants.

In connection with the investigation of [REDACTED], it was necessary for Special Agents of the West Palm Beach Resident Agency to interview Mr. JOSEPH P. KENNEDY at his Palm Beach home on December 24, 1952.

The Agents have advised me that Mr. KENNEDY was very profuse in his admiration for the Director and for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. He stated that without the guidance of the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the government of this country would fall into an unprecedented state of corruption. He was extremely cooperative in furnishing information to the Agents in connection with the investigation as he always is when interviewed by Agents in this area, and it is suggested that the Bureau might desire to direct a letter to Mr. KENNEDY, if deemed appropriate, expressing the Director's appreciation for his kind remarks.

My associates in Florida have informed me of the kind comments you expressed concerning the FBI and me during a recent interview with Special Agents of this Bureau, and I could not let the opportunity pass without telling you how grateful I am.

It is the constant endeavor of all of us to discharge our responsibilities in such manner as to inspire public confidence, and remarks such as yours are extremely reassuring. I only hope that our efforts always will meet with your approval.

Sincerely yours,

Edgar

ATTENTION SAC: Reurlet 1-7-53. Relet failed to identify Kennedy as the former Ambassador to Britain and to list his current address. It was necessary, therefore, for appropriate checks to be made at the Bureau to definitely identify him and secure his address. In the future, you are instructed to be more thorough in suggesting letters of this type.

NOTE: Address of correspondent secured from current "Who's Who" which also reflected him to be former Ambassador to Britain. Directories did not indicate a more thorough address.

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Mr. Hoover:

The writer had the opportunity today to visit with Mr. Joseph P. Kennedy at Hyannisport, Massachusetts. Mr. Kennedy was very very high in praise of you personally and the Bureau generally. He stated in unequivocal terms that if it were not for the FBI the country would go to Hell.

Mr. Kennedy mentioned [redacted] recent columns regarding Civil Rights investigations and stated it was difficult for him to understand why [redacted] would write such a thing because [redacted] has so often said to Mr. Kennedy, "The FBI is the only decent agency in the Government and the rest of them are not worth a good G.D."

Mr. Kennedy believes that [redacted] was angling his columns at the Jews, Negroes and the Communist element behind the Civil Liberties outfit, as well as the NAACP. Kennedy says he does not feel in his own heart that [redacted] has anything against the Bureau at all and, in fact, has great respect for the Bureau and for you personally.

Sincerely,
